Lenten Retreat
Weekend
March 17-19 2017

*Please join us and uncover the value of getting away from the chaos:
Disconnect and Re-connect*

Ignatius House has been hosting retreats for over 50 years welcoming nearly 3,000 retreatants annually. Located on 20 heavily wooded acres overlooking the Chattahoochee River you'll discover a place where you can withdraw from the demands of daily life, rest and become more fully aware of God's presence. The grounds and wilderness provide the perfect peaceful setting in every season

What to Expect:

All Ignatius House retreats are silent, unless otherwise noted. They are directed by a certified spiritual director who provides a series of presentations designed to assist you with your meditation, reflection, and spiritual journey. The retreat offers opportunities for participation in liturgy, group prayer, and spiritual direction. Time in the schedule and physical settings of the retreat center offer one solitude, nature trails, reflection/prayer areas and numerous opportunities to be alone with yourself and God.

You will find:

- Stunning views and Walking trails along the river's edge with decks, gazebos and benches
- Calming, soothing sounds of cascading waterfalls
- Fresh, wholesome, delicious meals prepared by a professional kitchen staff
- Indigenous trees, plants, and wildlife
- St. Ignatius Chapel
- The perfect environment for prayer and reflection
