is pleased to present

Sex Abuse Crisis: Fact, Fiction, Future

The current sexual abuse crisis demands precise information not sensationalized storylines. This dialogue will attempt to place the current crisis in an historical context with data driven conclusions that will allow us to discern possible steps forward.

Speaker: Fr. Gerard McGlone, S.J.
A psychotherapist for nearly 30 years, Fr. McGlone served as the co-director of research and staff therapist at the National Institute for the Study, Prevention, and Treatment of Sexual Trauma. He has four master's degrees: one in divinity, one in theology and two in clinical and counseling psychology, as well as a Ph.D. in clinical psychology.
