

New Workshop

Racism In America: What Is Mine To Do?

Testimonials

"The powerful witnessing opened my eyes and changed my heart. Maybe we really can move the needle."

"I am so weary. But this experience revived my soul."

2019 Dates:

Friday, Sept 6, 12pm - 5pm
Saturday, Sept 7, 9am - 5pm

Cost:

$75 donation.
Sponsor is subsidizing expenses including meals, training materials, expert facilitators

Location:

The Loudermilk Center
40 Courtland St NE
Atlanta, GA 30303

Contact Info:

Catherine Perry PCC, Founder
InwardBound Center for Nonprofit Leadership
cperry@inwardboundcenter.org
(404) 386-8434

The answers to What Is Mine to Do? lie in your story. Your personal, intimate story reveals what life has taught you about racism. Chart your narrative. Uncover beliefs, assumptions, and disappointed dreams. See where your story is pointing you today.

OUTCOMES

- Discern what is 'Mine to Do' to move toward race reconciliation
- Learn ways to start and stay in conversations on race
- How to respond when racism appears

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Design your personal timeline revealing when race mattered, positively and negatively, and its impact on your life
- When have you honored — and dis-honored — your values when considering race
- What is your relationship to race going forward

WHAT'S NOT COVERED

History lesson on racism. Debating current events. Convincing others of your point of view. Long presentations.

TOPICS WITH SOME SHARP EDGES

- Discover biases and assumptions that serve you, and those that don't
- Particularly for white participants, how to manage silence, defensiveness, and certitude when talking about race

WISDOM TRADITIONS SHOW THE WAY

- Time for reflection
- Storytelling and witnessing generate empathy and conviction

Lourdes parishioners are asked to register for the workshop by emailing their names to Fr. Jeffery jott@lourdesatlanta.org

DEADLINE, FRIDAY, AUGUST 23rd

The InwardBound Center envisions the day when nonprofits committed to overcoming poverty rank on the Best Places to Work lists, known for outstanding leadership and success in achieving their mission. Tax exempt 501(c)(3) organization. Founded by Catherine Perry PCC.

 InwardBound® Center
for Nonprofit Leadership

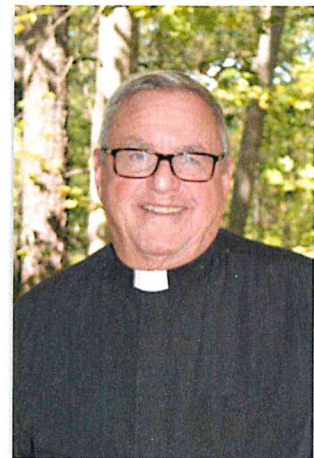

Behold Your Mother

A Day about Mary

Directed by Peter Fink, SJ

August 15, 9am-3pm

Who is this Mary whose singular vocation was to bring into this world the Messiah, the Lord, the Son of God? As a mother she raised him. As a mother she watched as he carried out his own mission from God. As a mother she stood by as he carried his cross. As a mother she rejoiced when he appeared to her in his risen state. This day we celebrate her victory as she stands with her Son now as mother to us all.

Peter Fink, SJ, director

Register at IgnatiusHouse.org
404.255.0503
6700 Riverside Drive, NW
Atlanta, Georgia 30328

Day of Reflection

