

THE INSTITUTE FOR BLACK CATHOLIC STUDIES is a graduate theology program and school of pastoral ministry that meets each summer on the campus of Xavier University of Louisiana. Due to the COVID-19, the IBCS 2020 will take its collaborative learning environment rooted in academic study, community life, prayer and worship online. The Institute's mission is to form culturally competent Christian disciples - scholars, administrators, clergy and religious, seminarians, parish and diocesan ministers, church volunteers, and the faithful - to effectively evangelize in the 21st century. This year's dates are June 28-July 17. Find out more at www.xula.edu/ibcs or 504-520-7691.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH: June 2020 has been designated as the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Atlanta Human Trafficking Awareness Month. From the substantially increased time we are spending in isolation and online to the economic fallout being faced by many in our communities, from the pornography crisis to the increased numbers of poor and vulnerable -now is a key time for us all, as individuals and as Church, to educate ourselves about sex and labor human trafficking. While it may seem like a problem too large to solve, there are steps we can all take to start making a change. This June, Catholics in North Georgia are being encouraged to spend at least one hour of their time to become more educated about sex and labor human trafficking. We have partnered with the International Human Trafficking Institute (IHTI) to offer three courses tailor made for our Catholic community in North Georgia. For more information: <https://archatl.com/ministries-services/justice-and-peace-ministries/issues/human-trafficking/> or contact Kat Doyle, Director of Justice and Peace Ministries, at kdoyle@archatl.com or 404-920-7897. National Human Trafficking Hotline 1-888-373-7888.

Thoughts on Stewardship

The bread and wine we offer at the Eucharist represents the whole of our lives. When they are transformed, the whole of our lives are transformed.

So, too, the symbolic offering of a significant proportion of our talent, treasure, and time is a sign of our giving our whole lives to God, and our whole lives are transformed in the action

Please pray for our sick and shut in members:
