

REMEMBERING LOURDES LUNCH FAITHFUL SERVANT

Jean Marek

Marek, Jean Longine (Jean) Marek, 95, of Atlanta, Georgia, died on Thursday, May 3, 2012 at a local hospital. Jean Marek was born in Chicago (Roseland) and lived for many years in Riverdale, Illinois before relocating to Atlanta, Georgia. Born on June 10, 1917, Jean outlived her parents, Regina and Frank Opyt; her husband, Edward Marek, and seven siblings, Gladys Hodorowitz, Anna Draus, Frances Hudek, Thomas Opyt, Helen Lesinski, Frank Opyt, Rose Burmesiter, and their spouses. She survived by her sons, Bob Marek of Atlanta and John Marek of Signal Mountain, Tennessee; three grandsons, Rob Marek of Atlanta, Todd Marek of Chicago, and Timothy Marek of Chattanooga, Tennessee; and one great-granddaughter, Halley Canis-Marek. Jean was an active volunteer feeding the homeless at Our Lord of the Lourdes Catholic Church in Atlanta, and was an avid bargainer and seller of undiscovered household treasures. A celebration will be announced. Donations may be made to Our Lord of the Lourdes Catholic Church Building Fund, 25 Boulevard NE, Atlanta, Georgia, 30312.

Jean Marek, 93, stacks lunch cards for the homeless.

