Saint Anne-Marie Javouhey- Founder, Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny
Missionary to Africa, 1779 - 1851

Possessed of strong determination, a superb organizer, and an inspirational pastor, Mother (later Saint) Anne-Marie Javouhey earned a lasting place in church history for her opposition to slavery, for founding the missionary order of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny and for being responsible for the early ordination of African Roman Catholic priest. Being a strong-willed, successful woman, she raised the ire of bishops who found her a threat.

Anne-Marie Javouhey was born in a devout farm family shortly before the French Revolution and grew up in the tumultuous and often anti-Christian setting of Napoleonic France. In 1812 she and eight companions acquired a house in Cluny, in their fledgling order took the name of the Sisters of St. Joseph Cluny, the sisters were responsible for the revival of missionary life in parts of the French overseas empire, especially in Africa.

Centennial Note

About the Centennial Logo: The centennial logo was designed by Robert Evans (parishioner), Principal, Times3 Graphic Design. The logo uses Our Lady of Lourdes blue and gold colors, traditionally associated with the Virgin Mary. A cross shape is centered within the four quadrants, and a subtle kente pattern referencing Lourdes' African-American roots appears in the gold quadrants. The dates of the founding year and centennial year are overlaid on the squares.
