Special Note (very important that you read)

Lourdes members please be aware that we are expecting special guests and friends to join us for the Masses of Thanksgiving noted with asterisks. Given our limited seating capacity in the sanctuary and limited seating in the overflow area, we ask you to plan your attendance or not, accordingly. For your convenience, we have arranged for live streaming which will permit anyone with a computer and internet access to view the Masses as they are happening from your home, office, etc. (stay tuned for the link for live streaming). We'll accommodate as many people as we can for these special masses and restrict access once the sanctuary and any overflow area are filled to keep everyone safe. If you decide to attend one of the Masses of Thanksgiving, you are urged to please be patient and follow the directions of the ushers, parking attendants, greeters, and others who will be helping to ensure that the celebrations are enjoyable for all. The celebrations will also be captured on video and photos to be enjoyed at your leisure.
