August is Medic Alert Awareness Month A medical identification tag is worn as a bracelet, necklace or on clothing. It allows the wearer to be identified as an individual with a medical condition that may need immediate attention. This tag serves as a tool to provide information to emergency responders, physicians, and law enforcement personnel in the event that the individual is unable to communicate. Typical conditions warranting a medical alert identifier are: Diabetes, Anaphylactic Allergies (food, drug, insect), Adrenal insufficiency, Pacemaker or other medical devices. Who needs Medic Alert? Persons with any medical problem or condition that cannot be easily seen or recognized need the protection of MedicAlert®. Heart conditions, diabetes, severe allergies and epilepsy are common problems. About one in every five persons has some special medical problem. Why Medic Alert? Tragic or even fatal mistakes can be made in emergency medical treatment unless the special problem of the person is known. A diabetic could be neglected and die because he/she was thought to be intoxicated. A shot of penicillin could end the life of one who is allergic to it. Persons dependent on medications must continue to receive them at all times. Furthermore, the MedicAlert® emblem can also help in identification. When is Medic Alert important? Whenever you cannot speak for yourself— because of unconsciousness, shock, delirium, hysteria, loss of speech, etc. —the MedicAlert emblem speaks for you.

Taizé Prayer Come out on Monday, August 26th and support our very own Taizé Prayer, held every 4th Monday of the month at 8:00pm in the lower meeting room of the Drexel Center. Come experience a Spirit-filled prayer for peace and justice.

Lourdes Lunch is closed for the summer and will re-open on September 10th.

Join the Lourdes Book Club for a book discussion on Saturday, August 24, 2013 after the 5 p.m. Mass. We will meet at Panera Bread at Emory Village located at 1545 N. Decatur Rd. In celebration of his life, we are pleased to have selected "Anthills of the Savannah by Chinua Achebe", who recently died. Achebe writes about the political and social problems facing newly independent African states. Anthills of the Savannah transport the reader to the West African country of Kangan, a fictional Nigeria, in the wake of a revolutionary coup that overthrew a dictator. Achebe discusses the strict balance of power that must be maintained in order to sustain a democracy, and the fine line that must be walked between leader and dictator. "Achebe moves effortlessly... creating a flurry of perspectives from which his story's dramatic and disturbing events are scrutinized. Anthills Of The Savannah... will prove hard to forget. It's a vision of social change that strikes us with the force of prophecy" -- USA Today. For more information, please contact Carole Lacour at Lared111@aol.com or (404) 629-078.
