SOUTH CAROLINA FLOODING Parts of South Carolina, including Charleston and Columbia, continue to recover from historic flooding. As the flood waters recede, the scope of the devastation can only now be assessed. The people of our Archdiocese are always extraordinarily generous in these moments, and as always I hope each of you will respond to this urgent appeal. While traditional second collections may still be taken and forwarded directly to Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Charleston (the address is below) or the chancery, many may now prefer to donate online so their aid arrives in moments rather than days or weeks. The important thing is not the way people participate, but rather that they do. Please respond by either: Online: charitiessc.org/donate-now; or Mail: Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Charleston 1427 Pickens Street, Columbia, SC 29201 (Please mark your check: "October 2015 Storm"); or Phone: 855-377-1357. Please join me and people of faith everywhere in praying for all those affected by this disaster. ~ Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory

Thoughts on Stewardship

If I am to work to be an effective Christian steward, with the help of God's grace, what will it cost me in terms of personal sacrifice and hardship?

LOURDES BOOK CLUB Join us for a book discussion on Saturday, October 24, 2015 at Panera at Emory Village at 7 p.m. Our book selection is In The Time of the Butterflies by Julia Alvarez. It is tale of courage and sisterhood set in the Dominican Republic during the rise of the Trujillo dictatorship. A skillful blend of fact and fiction, it is inspired by the true story of the three Mirabal sisters who, in 1960, were murdered for their part in an underground plot to overthrow the government. Alvarez breathes life into these historical figures. Read this book for the place it takes you. Read this book and take courage." —The Denver Post. For more information, please contact Carole Lacour at Lared111@aol.com or (770) 951-3417.

LOURDES NURSERY is accepting children from age 6 months—4 years old. Also, if you are interested in volunteering please contact the Church Office at 404-522-6776.
