CHRISTIAN FORGIVENESS AS INCARNATIONAL: TURNING TO THE BLACK EXISTENTIAL EXPERIENCE IN AN ERA OF HATE

THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 10, 2019
AT 7:00PM

ALUMNI CENTER
86 WENTWORTH ST.
Reception immediately following Lecture

Christianity is faced with the temptation to live out the Christian life on the level of mental abstraction. But what does the belief that God became human mean for us in our world? This talk seeks to understand Christian forgiveness concretely in the histories of black bodies. It will articulate a theology of hope in dialogue with the black experience as a pathway for embracing Christian identity in an era of hate.

Dr. Simon Mary Ahiokhai,
Assistant Professor of Theology
at the University of Portland

This Lecture is free, open to the public, and serves as the opening session for the 41st annual meeting of the
