

Healthcare Work as a Vocation: Service in a Time of Pandemic

Date: Tuesday, June 30th

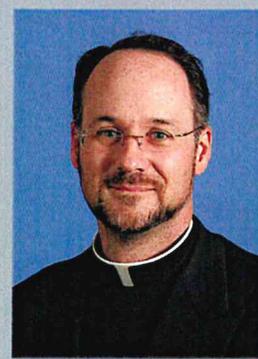

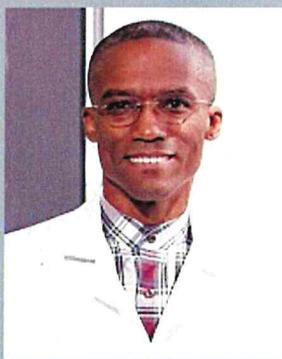

Time: 1:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Cost: Free, but Registration is Required

Registration Link: <https://bit.ly/HealthcareVocation>

This webinar will feature a panel of healthcare professionals reflecting on their personal experiences during the COVID-19 pandemic and how it has challenged or strengthened their sense of vocation, or mission. Attendees will be encouraged to participate throughout the program by offering their perspectives and questions for the panelists.

Panelists (from left to right)

Celeste Aden, RN, BSN; Burn Center/ICU, Grady Memorial Hospital

Dr. Eric Flenaugh; Assoc. Professor & Vice Chair Medicine, Morehouse School of Medicine; Chief & Director of Pulmonary, Critical Care & Interventional Pulmonary Medicine, Grady Hospital.

Dr. Maura George; Assoc. Professor, Emory Univ. School of Medicine

Fr. Patrick Scully; Chaplain, Emory St. Joseph Hospital

EMORY

CANDLER
SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Aquinas Center