

ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Peace and all good things!

As the year draws to a close, I am filled with gratitude. Being appointed your archbishop has been a beautiful homecoming for me and it is my great privilege to walk with you as we build God's Kingdom together.

I want to thank you for your generous response to the 2020 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. The theme of this year's Appeal, "You are the Light of the World," reminded us of our call to live lives of love and service, brightly radiating God's Grace for all to see. Thank you for living that call through the remarkable work supported by your generosity. Especially at a time of such uncertainty, sorrow and hardship for so many throughout our community, our nation and the world, your contribution has made a vital and tangible difference.

This year, the campaign totaled more than $10.2 million pledged or contributed. That total represents nearly 29,000 pledges and one-time gifts – truly a blessing and a testament to the abundant giving and gracious spirit of the people of our Archdiocese.

I am grateful to our pastors, priests, parish staffs, Archbishop's Annual Appeal committee members, and most especially to all of you who contributed so generously to the 2020 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. Please reach out to the Office of Stewardship with any questions or comments that you may have.

Thank you for letting your light shine! May you be blessed beyond measure for all your goodness.

With prayerful best wishes, I am

+ Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv.
