When you decide to speak — or when you lapse into silence — has an impact. Your everyday choices put you in integrity. Or keep you on the sidelines.

Experience success as you learn how to start conversations on race. And stay in conversations. See how to manage shutting down, defensiveness and certitude. And support people of color in the ongoing struggle.

Discover practical tools. Find your voice. And reveal an answer or two to the question: "What Is Uniquely Mine To Do?"
