

NEWS AT LOURDES

YOU ARE INVITED! The Aquinas Center will be hosting an annual Aquinas Day celebration on Thursday, January 29, 2026, with a worship service beginning at 11:05 a.m. at Cannon Chapel with lunch and lecture immediately following in Chandler School of Theology, room 360. Dr. Matthew Cressler will be drawing from his webcomic series, "Bad Catholics, Good Trouble." He'll be sharing some forgotten stories that reveal how the Catholic tradition has both reinforced oppression and inspired radical witness.

UPDATE YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION: As we begin a new year and prepare 2025 Tax Statements, we are asking Lourdes members to update their personal information. If you have moved, made any changes to your name, email address, phone number, need to add members to your family record or perhaps correct information contained in your family record, please update your information online using our My Own Church (ParishSOFT) web-based portal <https://atlantaaaim.parishsoftfamilysuite.com/>, no later than Friday, January 16. If you did not previously register, you will be required to register as a new user and create a username and password even though you are already a member of Lourdes. Once registered you will receive an email acknowledgement with your username and temporary password. For questions or if you need assistance, call the church office or email Carol Ann Pinard (cpinard@lourdesatlanta.org).

YOU ARE INVITED: Stories of Hope: Radical Healthcare Solutions and the PAD Epidemic : Join us for a screening of "Bloodlines, MS" - Uncovering injustice, inspiring change—an urgent conversation on Black health and limb loss at "Bloodlines, MS" Film Screening & Dialogue on Black Health in America. Join a powerful evening that brings together clinicians, policymakers, community leaders, and patients to confront one of the most devastating—and preventable—crises in American healthcare: the intersection of diabetes, Peripheral Artery Disease (PAD), and the epidemic of avoidable amputations. The program features:

- Screening of the award-winning short documentary Bloodlines, Mississippi
- Panel conversation on diabetes disparities, PAD underdiagnosis, systemic inequities, and national policy gaps
- A call to action for radical solutions in screening, workforce, reimbursement, and community-based prevention

Admission: Free with RSVP. Audience: Open to health care professionals, students, advocates, and the public. Reserve your seat now! For more information and to register.

Thoughts on Stewardship

Steward-disciples recognize God as the origin of life, the giver of freedom, the source of all they have and are. They see themselves as caretakers of God's gifts. They are grateful for what they have received and are eager to cultivate their gifts out of love for God and one another. - USCCB I letter on stewardship 1993
